OBJETIVES AND IMPORTANT ABOUT ME

I am studying and seeking challenges within the IT sector in order to learn and develop myself in the field. For now, I am mainly focused on backend development using technologies such as Python Flask, Django, SQL, Docker, Kubernetes, and FastAPI. I also have knowledge of HTML and CSS.

My future goal is to work remotely as a programmer, so I am open to projects and challenges that can help me grow in the field and gain more experience. I am proactive and looking for opportunities for self-improvement.
